

CALIFORNIA STATE SCIENCE FAIR
2002 PROJECT SUMMARY

Name(s) Julie Lee; Tina Lee	Project Number 22709
Project Title Remember Me
Objectives/Goals Our goal is the understand the brain's functions in regards to short term memory and recall.Methods/Materials Materials: Paper,pencil,computers,books,timer,red pen, glue,scissors and construction papers. Procedure: Gather information, Creat list, creat spread sheet, get volunteers, give out survey, collected data, analyze data, and draw up conclusion.Results Our hypothesis 7 +/- 2 words was supported. The influenceing factors of gender was rejected and grade level/age was supported.Conclusions/Discussion Our hypothesis was supported and our goal of understanding the functions of the brain in regards to the ability to recall was achieved.
Summary Statement Our project is about short term memory.
Help Received Mr. Andazolo, Ap Psychology teacher, Mr Fred Easton, Probability and statistic teacher, and Mr. Levy, AP Biology teacher.	